ABSTRACT

The 1980 census was the first census since 1910 to collect extensive data on American Indian tribes. This two-section report is based on the 1980 census sample (approximately 19% of housing units), and contains 27 extensive data tables describing demographic and economic characteristics of U.S. American Indian tribes. Tables estimate 1980 census population totals for each tribe for the nation, regions, divisions, states, and selected counties. All tribes, clans, bands, or groups with at least 30 persons are included. Characteristics presented at the national and state levels include age, sex, household and family type, fertility rate, language, educational attainment, school enrollment, labor force participation, occupation, income, and poverty status. Some information is offered for American Indians living on reservations, tribal trust lands (off reservations), and the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas), and for American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts living in Alaska Native villages. Census data are based on self-identification and thus may differ from data of other sources, such as tribal governments or the Bureau of Indian Affairs. An introduction describes data sources and related materials and the organization of this report. Appendices explain: (1) area classifications; (2) subject characteristics and comparability of 1980 data with 1970 census data; (3) general enumeration and processing procedures; (4) sample design, estimation procedures, and data accuracy; and (5) the census publications and computer tape program. Facsimiles of respondent instructions and questionnaire pages are included. (SV)

GENERAL

This report is part of the Subject Report series and presents sample data from the 1980 Census of Population for American Indian tribes, the total American Indian population, and the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population. Information for American Indian tribes is presented for the United States, regions, divisions, States, and selected counties. Information is shown for the American Indian population for identified American Indian areas which include reservations, tribal trust lands (off reservation), and the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas). Data also are shown in this report for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population in Alaska Native villages.

The 1980 census was the first one since the 1910 census to provide extensive data on the American Indian tribes. This is the only 1980 census report to publish data on the demographic, social, and economic characteristics of American Indian tribes.

The American Indian tribal entries reported on the 1980 census questionnaires were coded according to a detailed list of tribes during the 1980 census general coding operation. The tribes on the code list were then categorized according to the American Indian Detailed Tribal Classification List. See appendix B, section on "Race—American Indian Tribe."

The 1980 census code list was developed by the Smithsonian Institution. In preparing the 1980 census detailed code list, the Smithsonian staff used resource materials and consulted with knowledgeable scholars and researchers in the American Indian community. The Census Bureau finalized the list based on comments from the American Indian community, tribal governments and organizations that reviewed the code list for accuracy and completeness.

This was also the first census to collect and publish social and economic characteristics of American Indians living on tribal trust lands. The types of identified American Indian areas and Alaska Native villages recognized in the 1980 census were based on recommendations of the Office of Management and Budget Task Force on Indian Census, consultations with American Indian tribal governments and organizations, and State governments. The 1980 census is the first to identify all Federal and State American Indian reservations and the other American Indian areas and Alaska Native villages shown in this report. (In the 1980 census, 278 reservations were identified; the 1970 census identified 115.) The definition for these areas are in "Appendix A.—Area Classifications."

The abbreviated identification for this report series is PC80-2 (i.e., Population Census, 1980-Volume 2) followed by a number and a letter representing the specific report.

A large portion of the information compiled from the 1980 Census of Population appears in Volume 1, "Characteristics of the Population," which focuses on data for the United States, States, standard metropolitan statistical areas (SMSA's), urbanized areas (UA's), counties, places, and other geographic areas. For a more complete description of the 1980 census data products, see "Appendix F.—Publication and Computer Tape Program."

Legal provisions for this census, which was conducted as of April 1, 1980, was made in the Act of Congress of August 31, 1954 (amended August 1957, December 1975, and October 1976), which codified Title 13, United States Code.

The content and procedures of the 1980 census were determined after evaluation of the results of the 1970 census, consultation with a wide variety of census data users, and extensive field testing. A number of changes were introduced in 1980 to improve the usefulness of the census results. The changes do not, however, affect to an appreciable extent the comparability between the 1980 census data and the 1970 census data for most characteristics. Further information on comparability for specific subjects appears in "Appendix B.—Definitions and Explanations of Subject Characteristics."

The data presented in this publication are based on the 1980 census sample. The data are estimates of the actual figures that would have resulted from a complete count. The basic sampling unit for the 1980 census was the housing unit, including all occupants. For persons living in group quarters, the sampling unit was the person. Approximately 19 percent of the Nation's housing units were included in the census sample.

More detailed information on the technical and procedural matters covered in the text of this report can be obtained by writing to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, DC 20233. Such information also appears in other publications of the 1980 census.

CONTENTS OF THE REPORT

Organization of the Report—This report contains text (this introduction and six appendixes), a table of contents, a table finding guide, and detailed tables.

Each detailed table is identified by a table number and title. The "stubhead" at the left under the title defines the types of geographic areas for which data are shown in the particular table and is considered part of the table title.

Appendix A describes area classifications. Appendix B provides definitions and explanations for the subjects, including the American Indian Detailed Tribal Classification List, covered in this report. Appendix C explains the residence rules used in counting the population and describes the data collection and processing procedures. Appendix D presents information on the sources of error in the data and editing procedures. Appendix E contains facsimiles of the respondent instructions and 1980 census questionnaire pages. Appendix F summarizes the data dissemination program of the 1980 census.

Content of the Tables—Tables 1 through 11 present data for the American Indian tribes. Table 1 shows the 1980 census population totals of American Indian tribes for the United States, regions, divisions, and States. Tables 2 and 3 provide the population totals of tribes by sex, for the United States, States, and counties. Tables 4 through 11 present demographic, social, and economic characteristics, (such as age, household and family type, language, education, labor force, occupation, income, and poverty) for American Indian tribes. Data are shown for the United States in tables 4 through 7 and for States in tables 8 through 11.

The most detailed classification of American Indian tribes for the 1980 census appears in tables 1 and 4 through 7. This classification includes tribes, clans, bands, or tribal groupings with at least 30 American Indian persons reported in the 1980 census regular questionnaire or the 1980 census supplementary questionnaire. This classification also includes nations or reservations that were reported in response to the question on tribe. Tables 2 and 3 show a condensed version of the tribal classifications. In the State tables, 8 through 11, only those tribes with 400 or more American Indian persons in the particular State are shown.

Characteristics comparable to those shown for American Indian tribes are presented for the population groups and American Indian and Alaska Native areas in the tables listed below:

- Total American Indian population for identified American Indian reservations in tables 12 through 15.

- Total American Indian population for tribal trust lands in tables 16 through 19.

- Total American Indian population for the identified historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas) in tables 20 through 23.

- Total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population for Alaska Native villages in tables 24 through 27.

RELATED MATERIALS

1980 Census Reports—Information on American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts also is found in the PC80-2-ID, Parts 1 and 2, American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts on Identified Reservations and in the Historic Areas of Oklahoma (Excluding Urbanized Areas). The data were collected on the 1980 Census Supplementary Questionnaire for American Indians. This questionnaire was used exclusively on the 278 Federal and State reservations identified for the 1980 census and in the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas).

The supplementary questionnaire information was obtained by direct interview with respondents in households that had received the regular short form census questionnaire and had at least one American Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut household member. Every person in the household, regardless of race, was asked the questions.

The supplementary questionnaire, developed by the U.S. Bureau of the Census with the help of the Office of Management and Budget Task Force on Indian Census, obtained additional information on American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts beyond the statistics from the regular 1980 census questionnaire. The additional information included tribal enrollment, place of residence one year earlier, year moved onto reservation, health services received, usual source of health care and travel time to it, health care payments, main reason for not working a full year in 1979, types of benefits received in 1979, electric lighting, and flooring and exterior wall materials. In addition, several questions from the regular questionnaire, such as school enrollment and tribal affiliation, were expanded on the supplementary questionnaire.

The data in this report may differ from comparable data from the supplementary questionnaire.

Detailed information on American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts also can be found in the following Volume 2 Subject Reports: Marital Characteristics, PC80-2-4C; Persons in Institutions and Other Groups, PC80-2-4D; Earnings by Occupation and Education, PC80-2-8B; and Poverty Areas in Large Cities, PC80-2-8D. These reports are all based on the regular 1980 census sample questionnaire.

Basic data for these population groups were also provided in the Volume 1, Characteristics of the Population reports. Counts and characteristics such as age, sex, relationship, and marital status for the American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts, based on 100-percent tabulations, were published in Characteristics of the Population, PC80-1-B. The PC80-1-B reports were published for the United States and each State; data are shown for standard consolidated statistical areas (SCSA's), SMSA's, urbanized areas (UA's), counties, county subdivisions, and places of 1,000 or more inhabitants. Comparable housing data also were published in Characteristics of Housing Units, General Housing Characteristics, HC80-1-A.

Social and economic data such as family composition, education, labor force status, and income and poverty were published for the United States and each State in General Social and Economic Characteristics, PC80-1-C. Statistics for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population and for its detailed groups are shown for the United States and States; data for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population are presented for selected substate areas (counties, places of 2,500 or more, SCSA's, SMSA's and UA's). Comparable housing data also were published in Detailed Housing Characteristics, HC80-1-B.

Detailed social and economic statistics cross-classified by age and other characteristics are presented for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population for the United States, and for selected States, SMSA's, and central cities of these SMSA's in Detailed Population Characteristics, PC80-1-D. Most subjects are presented for the State and SMSA's of 250,000 or more inhabitants, and a few are shown for central cities of these SMSA's. Information is presented for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population in areas with 25,000 or more of the group or where they comprise at least 10 percent of the total population.

Metropolitan Housing Characteristics, HC80-2, presents cross-tabulations of housing information for States, SMSA's and their central cities, and other areas with 50,000 or more inhabitants. Data are presented for areas with 10,000 or more total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population.

Statistics for most of the population and housing subjects included in the 1980 census were published in Census Tracts, PHC80-2. Counts are shown separately for American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts for SCSA's, SMSA's, and tracts. Social, economic, and housing data on the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population are published for SCSA's, SMSA's, and tracts with 400 or more of this group.

Counts and characteristics on age, sex, family type, education, labor force status, income, and poverty, and housing for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population were published for congressional districts for each State and the District of Columbia in Congressional Districts of the 98th Congress, PHC80-4.

Data on the American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut populations were published in various reports in the 1980 Census of Population Supplementary Report series. The specific reports in this series that show data on the American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut populations are: Age, Sex, Race, and Spanish Origin of the Population by Regions, Divisions, and States: 1980, PC80-S1-1; Race of the Population by States: 1980, PC80-S1-3; Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas and Standard Consolidated Statistical Areas: 1980, PC80-S1-5; Detailed Occupation and Years of School Completed by Age, for the Civilian Labor Force by Sex, Race, and Spanish Origin: 1980, PC80-S1-8; and American Indian Areas and Alaska Native Villages: 1980, PC80-S1-13.

The PC80-S1-13 report shows separate data for American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts. The report also shows population totals for the American Indian population on reservations, tribal trust lands, and the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas), and for the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut populations in Alaska Native villages and in Alaska Native Regional Corporations.

The data on reservations and Alaska Native villages in this Volume 2 report and in PC80-S1-13 differ from those in 1980 census volume 1 reports. The data on reservations and Alaska Native villages in this report and PC80-S1-13 include corrections made after the final 1980 census tabulations were completed.

1980 Census Computer Tape Program—Results from the 1980 census also are provided on computer tape files in the form of Summary Tape Files (STF's). These products have been designed to provide statistics with greater subject and/or geographic detail than is feasible to provide in printed reports. STF's 1 through 5 present varying amounts of geographic and subject data on the American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts. STF's 1, 3, and 5 primarily contain data on the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population. STF's 2 and 4 have data on the total American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut population and its detailed groups. For a more detailed description of the content of these files, see "Appendix F.—Publication and Computer Tape Program." There also is an American Indian Supplementary Questionnaire Summary Tape File and an American Indian Supplementary Questionnaire Public Use Microdata Sample based on data from the 1980 Census Supplementary Questionnaire For American Indians.

Reports from Earlier Censuses— Data from the 1970 census on the Eskimo and Aleut populations were collected for Alaska only, whereas information on the American Indian population is available for all States.

Statistics on the American Indian population are published in chapters B and D of 1970 Census of Population, Volume 1, Characteristics of the Population. Population totals and sex distribution, based on complete-count data, are presented in chapter B for the United States, its regions, divisions, and States, standard metropolitan statistical areas (SMSA's), urbanized areas, places, and counties. Age, sex, and nativity statistics for States, based on the 15-percent sample, are shown in chapter D.

Statistics on the American Indian population are found in Volume II subject reports of the 1970 Census of Population: American Indians, PC(2)-1F; Woman by Number of Children Ever Born, PC(2)-3A; Marital Status, PC(2)-4C; School Enrollment, PC(2)-5A; Educational Attainment, PC(2)-5B; Occupational Characteristics, PC(2)-7A; Low Income Population, PC(2)-9A; and Low Income Areas in Large Cities, PC(2)-9B.

Data on Aleuts and Eskimos in Alaska are presented in a 1970 Census of Population Supplementary Report, Native Population of Alaska, by Race: 1970, PC(S1)-64. Also statistics are presented in another 1970 Census of Population Supplementary Report, Race of the Population by County: 1970, PC(S1)-104.

Data on American Indian tribes are found in the Volume II subject report of the 1970 Census of Population, American Indians, PC80-2-1F.

Information for 1960 on racial composition of the United States, regions, divisions, States, SMSA's, urbanized areas, cities, and counties were published in 1960 Census of Population, Volume 1, Characteristics of the Population. Statistics on the social and economic characteristics of the American Indian population based on a 25-percent sample, are presented in the 1960 Census of Population, Volume II, Nonwhite Population by Race, PC(2)-1C.

In the 1950 census data on American Indians for States were published in Volume II, Characteristics of the Population. Data on social and economic characteristics of American Indians are presented in 1950 Census of Population, Volume IV, Part 3B, Nonwhite Population by Race, and in Volume IV, Part 5B, Education.

SYMBOLS AND GEOGRAPHIC ABBREVIATIONS

The following symbols and geographic abbreviations may appear in the tables:

- A dash "–" represents zero or a percent which rounds to less than 0.1.
- Three dots ". . ." mean not applicable, or that the data are being withheld to avoid disclosure of information for individuals. (For further information on disclosure, see the section below on "Suppression of Data for Confidentiality.")
- A less than sign (<) preceding a figure denotes decrease.
- A plus sign (+) following a figure denotes increase.

SUPPRESSION OF DATA FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

To maintain the confidentiality promised respondents and required by law, the Bureau of the Census takes precautions that its published data do not disclose information about specific individuals. To accomplish this, the Census Bureau suppresses data for characteristics which are based on a small number of persons in the geographic area.

The general rules of suppression of sample data in this report are as follows: estimates of total population by race are never suppressed; other characteristics for persons, including American Indian tribes, are shown only if there are 30 or more American Indians or 30 or more American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts in the geographic area; characteristics of families or households are shown only if there are at least 10 American Indian households or families or at least 10 American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut households or families within the geographic area. These suppression criteria are applied independently of one another.
